Business of the House.

SRI KADIDAL MANJAPPA (Minister for Revenue).—I want to make one submission on behalf of the Leader of the House. Several members are anxious to go back to their home tomorrow afternoon. Therefore, the suggestion is that a morning session may be held tomorrow.

MR. SPEAKER.—If the House agrees.

SEVERAL MEMBERS.—We agree.

MR. SPEAKER.—Tomorrow there will be a morning session from 8-30 to 1-30 P.M.

MOTION ON GOVERNOR'S ADDRESS.

(Debate continued)

†SRI J. B. MALLARADHYA (Nanjangud).—Mr. Speaker, Sir, I have listened to the speeches concerning the Motion of Thanks to the Address of the Governor and the amendments moved there to. Before I wish to speak on this, I personally feel that the Governor's Address has become a legal fiction and particularly this year the the speech is lengthy. I was wondering whether we could not think of some change in the procedure. I have looked into the proceedings of the House of Commons and I have also compared the speeches made by the King and the Queen latterly. Those speeches are very short and they confine themselves to the very major questions of policy and one or two very important matters relating to the administration. I want that we should evolve a procedure like that in this House. Possibly there may be an argument that the privilege of the members to speak on the Governor's Address for four days will be taken away. But those four days can be added on to the Budget discussion. Our Rules of Procedure can be changed accordingly. My intention is not to
